Coffield-Pickens Testify In $8,000,000 Suit by Langford

In the first day of the $8,000,000 suit, Tuesday, brought agaist H. H. "Pete" Coffield and W. L. Pickins by DeWitt Langford, Coffield was kept on the stand for extensive questioning.

The trial is being held without jury since the plaintiffs waived a jury trial.

One of the main points brought out by Coffield was his testimony that he and W. L. Pickins, Dallas businessman and partner of Coffield in many business ventures, loaned some $300,000 to the East Texas Novelty Company, which had Joe R. Steele as its president. Coffield testified that the loan was made for the purchase of marble tables, which at that time were legal.

Coffield stated that he and Pickens were to be given either 20 percent of the profit from the tables or 20 percent of the capital stock of the company. He said that he never received any stock certificates. According to Coffield's testimony the company ceased operations when the marble machines were made legally inoperative and stored in his warehouse in Houston. He stated that he and Pickens lost over $60,000 on the operation.

This trial, being held before Judge O. D. Graham, is based on Langford's petition that Coffield and Pickens deprived him of $4,000,000 worth of assets, including his 6500-acre ranch in Zavalla Co. ranchlands in Zavalla and Maverick Counties, the Grapette franchises in Texas and other business interest. He is also seeking $4,000,000 in exemplary damages.

He claimed, through testimony, that he and Pickens never made any money out of their dealings with Langford and, instead, lost money on every venture, dating back from 1945.

Oral Depositions from Albert Carter, former general manager of the Eastern Drug Company, and by W. L. Pickens were read at the Wednesday afternoon session of the DeWitt Langford vs. W. L. Pickens and H. H. Coffield $8,000,000 case, in the Milam District courtroom before Judge O. D. Graham.

The first deposition was by Carter, taken by the plaintiffs in Longview, Texas on March 25. Predominating the statements of Carter was, "I don't remember. If I remembered I would be happy to say. I did remember at the time I left Eastern Drug."

He kept reminding the questioning attorney, W. F. Weeks, that he worked for Eastern Drug some 10 years ago. Weeks asked him if his memory was better a year ago and he answered, "No".

When questioned he said that he was employed by Pickens and took his orders from Pickens, after Pickens, Coffield and Langford held conferences, usually held in Dallas.

When asked if the Eastern Drug, a liquor concern, sold liquor and beer at over O.P.A. prices, Carter answered yes, during one period of time, which he termed "short", when the market would allow, the company sold liquor at from $3.00 to $5.00 overage per case and beer at $1.00 over list price per case. He told the attorney that all of the overage was taken to Pisckens and was not entered on the books.

Plaintiff Attorneys tried to pin him down to the amount of the "overage" taken to Pickens but he stated that he did not remember. They asked if some of the amounts were not $8,000, $10,000 and up to $13,000 and he said, to the best he could recall, the largest amounts taken to Pickens was from $3,000 to $4,000.

When asked if a record of the funds delivered in cash was kept Carter answered, "Mr. Pickens, at all times, made notations at his office in Dallas, the money was received from the sale of a small amount of liquor and was mostly from beer sales."

The oral deposition of Pickens was then read, with two main points emphasized by the questioning attorney, W. F. Weeks, Eastern Drug Company operations and the East Texas Novelty Company.

The deposition brought out that the defendants loaned $292,000 to the East Texas Novelty Company, with payments from $2,000 to $20,000 weekly signed by Joe R. Steele. His testimony told that although he was supposed to get 20 per cent stock or 20 per cent of the profits he still was loser to some sixty-odd thousand in the business.

The gross income of the Novelty Company in Conroe was $23,805.02 with a net loss of $15,420.15 and in Houston, after operating expenses, an income of $75,195.24, making a near $60,000 net profit in 1950. This company later changed to the Automatic Novelty Sales, of which Pickens is half owner and Tom Williams is half-owner.

Pickins stated that for the $100,000 Langford needed to consummate the deal of buying the company of Stuart & Williamson Company, which owned fifteen or sixteen hundred barrels of aged, bonded bourbon whiskey, they (the defendents, were given a deed of trust on 5,200 or 5,300 acres of ranch land in Maverick County, Texas, ranch land in Zavalla and Maverick Countis, interest in the Grapette Bottling Company at Houston, including all equipment and trucks and his intention to pledge his one-half interest in the Grapette plant at Harlingen and the Gregg Distributing Company in Longview, by Langford.

He stated, by deposition, that he and Coffield advanced the money.

On a subsequent loan, made on July 9, 1945, for which Langford promised that he would pay them (the defendents) $1.25 per case for whiskey, liquor, etc. that he handled, himself, individually or under the name of Gregg Distributing Company or Gregg Wholesale Drug and Distributing Company or any other name he operated under, and 35 cents per case on every case of beer sold.

Still later, in 1950 after Langford went broke, the defendent stated that they re-financed him to go back into the E-Tex Novelty Company and put about a third of a million dollars in that venture, from which he stated they (the defendents) took another loss.

Under cross-examination Pickins stated that he and Coffield hand no control or ownership of any Houston stores, other than to sell them whiskey.

Pickens stated "So far as we could, and did, Mr. Coffield, Mr. Bostick, Mr. Carter, Mr. Cook and I, all exercised our very best judgement in all of the deals we had with Mr. Langford."

When, in re-direct examination, he was reminded that Langord's suit is not based upon "information that came out of your books and records, but rather on information that never got into the books", the defendent answered, "I understand he sued for all he could."

an editorial ....

There are 1,415 potential voters in this School District, it is important for every one of them to vote if the people are to be fairly represented in the school board during the coming year.

Many people, not just those of the Cameron Independent School District, do not take the effort to go to the polls..... and then spend the rest of the year complaining about what is being done at the school board meetings.

If you want to be represented, and you want your candidates to be elected be sure that you go to the polls, and if you will be out of the county or are sick in bed, be sure to file an absentee ballot.

Many issues have been raised during the past year, find out how each of the eight candidates running for election feel about each of those issues and cast your vote accordingly.

Everyone is glad to see the interest the people have shown in the schools during the past year. Discussion, both pro and con, is a healthy sign, for it arouses interest, and that, in turn, will lead to the best of schools for Cameron children.

There will be three days in which to cast your absentee ballot, if you will be unable to vote on election day. Don't put it off, it is too important to you, your neighbors and your children.

Cast your vote for those who will best represent you on the school board.

Parents Meetings Will Be Held Next Two Weeks

Parents' meetings will be held the next two weeks at all schools to discuss the polio vaccine program which may get under way here next month, it was announced today by Dr. John Bryson, Director of Milam County Health unit and H. H. Pruett, County School Superintendent.

"Familiar now with the general plan of the vaccine program, parents of children in the first and second grades of school naturally are eager for fuller details about it," Mr. Pruett said. "Forms requesting vaccination for their children have been distributed to them and may be signed and turned in at these meetings.

"Health and school authorities, working together, have planned these informal meetings to answer questions," Dr. Bryson explained. "Factual information for the general public is being disseminated as well. If the Salk polio vaccine is licensed, we will then be ready to begin inoculations immediately, knowing we have full community understanding and support of the program."

If scientific evaluation proves the vaccine effective and it is licensed, it will be offered to children in the first and second grades of the county's public, private and parochial schools. Supplies of vaccine for this purpose will be made available to the State Health Department without charge for the product by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Vaccine will be available for purchase at the same time, to be used by physicians for other children.

Parental request forms, tentative location of clinics, methods of setting them up and staffing them, and the importance of each child's receiving three "shots" over a five week period, will be reviewed at the meeting. How parents can help in the general administration of the vaccine program also will be discussed by the representative of the Health Unit conducting the Parents' Meeting. Each meeting will allow full opportunity for questions. Parents of children of all ages are welcome to attend. The date, time and place of these meetings will be sent to each parent in a letter accompanying the request slips. Other interested individuals may obtain this information from the school principal or the Milam County Health Unit.

18 Shallow Wells Complete In Milam Field

The shallow oil field located northwest of Milano was further enlarged with two new completions reported early this week, and pits dug and drilling started on a third well in the area.

Eighteen wells have now been completed as producers in the field.

One of the two new wells is located on the Calton 22 acre tract, formerly known as the Hendricks land, lying north of the Griffin Chapel discovery. The second new well is on the John Williams lease which adjoins the Calton land on the east.

Drilling also was reported under way on another well, on the Dr. E. H. O'Neill land, on which seven producers are located.

No new information is available about the Texas Gulf Sulphur Company's No. 1 Fee, deep test drilling in this area, since it was reported drilling below 8,000 feet on a 9,000 ft. permit about two weeks ago. However, it is reported that drilling operations are continuing on this test.

R. W. Doe To Speak at C of C Banquet Friday

Rilea W. Doe, vice president of Safeway Stores and one of the county's outstanding speakers, will address the annual meeting of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce at a banquet Friday evening, Apr 15, in Longview, according to an announcement by K. A. Anderson, President.

Rilea Doe has been active in public life since he joined the Safeway organization in 1919, following World War I, and has been an active member and District Governor of Rotary International; served on the board of Rotary International, and as president of Western States Chain Grocers Association, and vice president of the National Association of Food Chains.

Although not billed as a humorist, Rilea Doe sprinkles a rare type of philosophy throughout his talks that never fails to delight his audiences.

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has issued a statement that Dr. Francis of the University of Michigan will make his momentous announcement to the effectiveness of the polio vaccine on April 12. Since it will be almost necessary to start the vaccination program in the schools by April 18, all preparations must be completed before the vaccine is known to be effective. Even if the program is started on April 18, many of the schools will be closed or closing before the last shot is given five weeks after the start of the program.

About one-half of the parents of the 1200 first and second grade children has availed themselves of this opportunity to have these children immunized against this dread disease. A study of the request slips turned in by the parents to the schools or the Milam County Health Unit revealed this fact on March 25. It is imperative that parents signing request slips turn these into the schools as soon as possible, so that the number requesting vaccinations can be determined and an order placed for the proper amount of vaccine the moment it is released. If parents wait until the effectiveness of the vaccine is known it will be too late to order enough for their children. If you have not signed a request slip brought home from school by your child and desire to do so, there are extra request slips available at all schools, or at the Milam County Health Unit.

Parents are reminded of the following facts regarding the possible polio vaccination campaign in Milam County:

1. This vaccination program is voluntary and it is necessary for a request slip to be signed by the parent before the child can be given the vaccine.

2. The vaccine will be given free of all schools in Milam County. The to first and second grade children the vaccine given at school or in the family doctor's office. In either case there will be no charge according to an agreement of the Milam County Medical Society. This agreement does not apply when the family physician lives outside of Milam County and he may or may not make a charge for administering the vaccine. If it is desired the family physician give the shots, then the appropriate space must be checked on the request slip and his name entered in the proper space, so that vaccine may be distributed to the doctors.

3. Reactions to the vaccine are minor and of little consequence. These reactions will probably be a sore arm and or a little fever for a few hours or a day. This vaccine contains the three types of polio virus but the virus has been killed by the use of a powerful disinfectant, formaldehyde, and then the vaccine is triple tested to be sure all the virus is destroyed. Precautions will be taken to prevent any reactions.

4. If the vaccine is licensed there will be vaccine available through the family physician for the immunizations of preschool children, adults and school children other than the first and second grade students. As this vaccine will be distributed on a commercial basis, there will be a moderate fee for these shots.

5. If the polio vaccine is found not to be effective, it will not be licensed and none will be given to anybody.

an editorial....

One thing you can say for our City Council — they have implicit faith in their own actions and seem certain that the people of Cameron are totally uninterested in any of the "minor" decisions or problems the city is faced with.

Now that is a fine line of reasoning, because once before it led to a tea-party — you remember, back when England held the controlling interest in Americaa; and of course everyone loves a party.

Last week the Council met — not in secret meeting, no, just a meeting that was totally unannounced to anybody but the participating councilmen.

What was the meeting about? Well, according to a secondhand report it was about the bill coming up before the house today that would allow the Railroad Commission to set the rates for natural gas, without the people, the city government, the state government, etc. being able to open their mouths yea or nea except to yell their complaints when the rates are increased.

Well, if you are as uninterested as they seem to think, then not one councilman will receive a telephone call objecting to meetings kept secret from the Press and therefore from the people.

Councilmen are Milton Schiller, Gene Blake, Robert Weems, Roy Griffith, Johnny Andres and Mayor O. B. Horstmann. All of their telephone numbers are listed in the city telephone directory.

J. Wayne Green, eminent Trichologist, demonstrates causes of baldness and how it can be prevented

How To Have Hair For A Lifetime To Be Demonstrated Here By Famous Trichologist Offer Written Guarantee

An exclusive interview by Steven Bright

WICHITA (Special) — J. Wayne Green, Director of Rogers, Inc., Hair and Scalp Specialists, exploded the 'myth of baldness' today in an exclusive interview.

"Baldness is unnecessary, costly, and a plague to mankind," says Green. "No man need be bald. No man need suffer the stigma of premature old age that is forced upon him because he is losing his hair. The Rogers method of hair and scalp treatment can prevent baldness—can turn colorless fuzz into healthy, growing hair — can make you look youthful again."

Demonstration To Be Held in Cameron, Texas

This revolutionary method of home treatment for the hair and scalp will be demonstrated in Cameron, Texas, Friday ONLY, April 1, at the Cameron Hotel. Trichologist E. L. Hicks will conduct the private, individual interviews from 12 noon until 9:00 P.M. on Friday ONLY. There is no cost or obligation, and you need no appointment.

Reasons For Baldness

"There is always a reason for baldness," continued this nationally known authority. "Hair cannot grow through a scalp that is infected with dandruff, excessive oiliness, or extreme dryness. A scalp that has never been exercised cannot be expected to produce healthy hair." Men, and yes, women too, walk the streets today, completely devoid of nature's greatest ornament — hair. Simply because they were not taught the basic rules of hair and scalp hygiene while they were growing up. "The simple answer," emphasized this expert, "is that children should be taught the same simple basic rules of hair and scalp hygiene that they are taught for the proper care of their teeth. If this were the case, baldness would be a rarity today!"

Heredity Not Involved

Trichologist Green dodged no issues. He quickly took up the most widely spread theory of baldness -heredity. "Mankind's un-realistic belief that baldness is hereditary stems from a misintepretation of the theory of genetics. Theory does not state that any person must be bald because baldness exists in the family. What it does say, is that in some families, a tendency exists towards an undernourished scalp." The purpose of the Rogers Hair and Scalp Clinic is to teach the methods of strengthening the weak scalp and nourishing it to a healthy vigorous condition. "A healthy scalp will grow hair if it is not already completely bald," assures Green.

Is There Hope For The Completely Bald

In his travels throughout the United States and Canada, Green has collected hundreds of testimonials of his ability to develop weak fuzz into healthy, mature hair. All of his clients have started with a private examination, hair and scalp analysis, and a diagnosis of the disorder. Green is quick however, to tell a hopeless case that he cannot be helped. "We strongly advise," says Green, "that no person who is completely bald hold any hope whatsoever of regrowing hair. If there is any fuzz at all, we can restore a healthy scalp condition and the hair will grow normally again as nature intended."

Offers A Guarantee

"Rogers, Inc., America's Foremost Hair and Scalp Specialists, offer a guarantee to any client who enrolls for treatment. If he or she is not completely delighted with results at the end of 30 days, the money invested will be graciously refunded," pledged Green. "We must have satisfied clients. We must grow hair. After all, it is our best advertisement."

Is Your Hair Healthy?

If you have a scalp disorder, or if you are worried about your hair, call Trichologist E. L. Hicks at the Cameron Hotel in Cameron, Texas, Friday ONLY from 12 noon to 9:00 p.m. The public is invited. The examinations are private and open to men and women. You do not need an appointment, and you will not be embarrassed or obligated in any way.

WELDON BRIGHT, popular radio star of KGNC says, "My wife has always used light Karo for cooking . . . and on the table . . .

it's Karo for me, the best-tasting waffle syrup of 'em all"

Yes, indeed . . . biscuits go like hot cakes when you pour on plenty of delicious Karo waffle syrup. There's nothing like it for good eating. Satisfyin' flavor. So rich it stands right up on top of biscuits (keeps 'em light and fluffy). Keep Karo on your table morning, noon and night . . . it tops anything!

U. S. Patent Law 165 Years Old In April

Washington — Whoever uses a safety pin, answers a telephone, turns on a light, or regains health by a new "wonder drug," can thank United States patent law—165 years old in April — for spurring American inventiveness.

Since April 10, 1790, the man who builds a better mousetrap has had the right to protect his invention by a contract with the United States Government, which guarantees his ownership for 17 years. Then the patent becomes public property.

By thus adding what Lincoln called "the fuel of interest to the fire of genius," the patent system has produced more real wealth than all the gold mines on earth, the National Geographic Society says.

Abe's Aprons

Lincoln's words are carved over the Patent Office door. Lincoln himself received a patent for a device to lift river boats off sandbars. Asked what he considered the first invention, he is said to have replied, "Man's first discovery was the fact that he had no clothes — whereupon he invented aprons."

Soil Conservation District News

Supervisors: Edwin Fischer, A. W. Butts, Paul C. Graves, Clarence L. Stock and Hal Hartrick.

The rains last week came just right for the Coastal Bermuda grass that was put out before the Friday rains. The Bermuda grass sprigging machine furnished by the Central Texas Soil Conservation District created quite a bit of interest in the area. On every farm where it was working neighbors came by to see it operate.

Mr. Love in the Pettibone community reported that over sixty people came by his farm while he was planting about 10 acres of the much publicized Coastal Bermuda and all were impressed by the labor saving features of the machine as it put the sprigs in the ground covered them and put out fertilizer in one operation. S. C. S. personel feel that the machine is doing the work of from 4 to 6 men.

Joe Glaser is now using the machine to put outa bout 30 acres of coastal Bermuda and 25 acres of common Bermuda. Lawrence McClarren will use it next for his 35 acres of Coastal Bermuda.

S. C. S. Technicans at Cameron feel that it can be kept busy in the Cameron area for the rest of the season. They also report that Coastal Bermuda is being put out this year on all of the main soil types in the area. These plantings should give us more information on the value and adaptability of the grass.

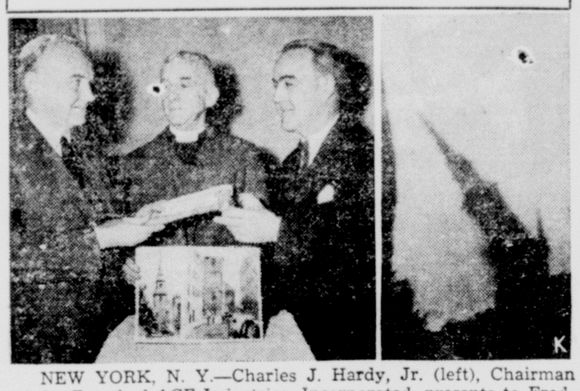
Old North Steeple Will Rise Again!



NEW YORK, N. Y.—Charles J. Hardy, Jr. (left), Chairman of the Board of ACF Industries, Incorporated, presents to Frederick M. Kimball (right), of the famous Lantern League a final check for $25,000, representing the largest single contribution for the rebuilding of the famed Old North Church Steeple, Boston, Mass., which topped during Hurricane Carol in August, 1954 (See photo at right).

This brought the total contributions to $138,655, which, in addition to the services and materials contributed by industry, substantially completes the campaign.

Reconstruction of the steeple will be done by the F. H. McGraw and Company of Hartford, Conn., which has offered its services without fee, starting in March. The new steeple, an exact replica of the original steeple from which Paul Revere received the historic lantern signal, will be completed by August 31st, the anniversary date of Hurricane Carol.

How To Make Texas Green In Winter

Texas Research Foundation's cool season pasture experiments at Renner have revealed how to make Texas green in winter — with profit for the cattleman.

A pasture of Mustang oats and button clover seeded Oct. 11, 1954, has producd a daily average gain per steer of 2.36 pounds in a grazing period from Jan. 15 to Feb. 15, 1955, Dr. J. H. Davis, Foundation agronomist in charge of the tests, has reported.

"The 2.36 pounds compares favorably with 2.73 pounds for the 1954 grazing period from Feb. 12 to June 16," Dr. Davis said. "As we began this year's grazing Dec. 15, we are two months ahead of last year's schedule. With favorable moisture this spring, we may be able to show higher gains than those of 1954."

Seeded Oct. 11, 1954, at the rate of 2½ bushels of oats and 10 pounds of clover to the acre, the pasture was 60 per cent oats and 40 per cent clover. Fertilizer at seeding consisted of 200 pounds of superphosphate and 250 pounds of sulphate of ammonia to the acre. The seedbed got 4.99 inches of rain in October, enough to establish it. But it received no effective rainfall in November and December.

From the time steers were placed on it, Dec. 15, until the Feb. 15 weighing, the pasture produced 121.11 pounds of beef to the acre. Dr. Davis said the significant factor was the length of the grazing period — one long enough to providt green grass during the dead of winter, when it is most needed.

Egg producers who sell on grade or above current prices are advised to go ahead this year with normal flock replacements. Market conditions indicate that efficient producers should make pullet replacements at regular intervals.

Home lawns receive an added "punch" if treated in the spring with a complete fertilizer.

Episcopal Building Campaign Has Goal In Individuals Life

The current Episcopal Educational Buildng Campaign is doing much to focus public attention on the importance of religion as an integrating force in education.

The men who founded this state and this nation knew that democracy depended upon an education which had its basis in religious principles. They knew our liberties had their source in God.

The $2,250,000 Episcopal Educational Building program will provide for a complete system of religious education which will include seminary training, high school and college religious education and camp living for entire families.

As Bishop John E. Hines pointed out in a recent speech, they will be building better citizens as well as better Episcopalians.

Easy Ways To Chase Stains

Soap and water alone remove many common stains from washable materials, if tackled while fresh. Some stains need a two-part treatment —loosening and laundering. Detailed directions follow:

Blood: Soak or rub in cold water, then wash in soapsuds. If stain persists, soak washables; then relaunder promptly.

Chocolate or Cocoa: Wash in warm soapsuds. If brown stains remain, treat with hydrogen peroxide and relaunder promptly.

Cod-Liver Oil: Sponge with glycerine or carbon tetrachloride; then launder.

Coffee and Tea: Pour boiling water from a 3-foot height through stained fabric stretched taut over a bowl; then launder.

Egg: Scrape off excess; soak in cool water, then wash in warm soapsuds.

Fruit and Berry: Rub with glycerine; then treat like coffee.

Grass: Rub in hot soapsuds; if necessary, use a bleaching solution and relaunder.

Gravy and White Sauce: Soak in cool water, then wash in hot soapsuds.

Grease, Oil, and Tar: Pure fats and oils usually come out in soapy water. For tarlike or heavy greases, rub spots with lard, then wash in very hot soapsuds.

Ice Cream: Sponge with cool water, then wash in hot soapsuds.

Iodine: If fresh, launder in warm soapsuds. If set, moisten and dry in sunshine. Or apply a paste of starch and ammonia and allow to dry; then brush it off and launder.

Lipstick or Rouge: Soften with glycerine, then launder in hot soapsuds.

Meat Juices: Soak in cool water, then wash in hot soapsuds.

Milk or Cream: Soak in cool water, then wash in hot soapsuds.

Paint: If fresh, use lots of hot soapsuds. If not, apply turpentine, kerosene, or lard and then wash in hot suds.

Scorch: If light, launder in hot suds; if deep, rub with soap and bleach in sunshine or dampen with peroxide; then launder.

Tomato Juice and Catsup: Dampen with water and rub with glycerine; then launder.

David A. Adams

David A. Adams, of Austin, Texas, has joined Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America, Inc., as its National Representative in the states of Texas and Oklahoma, William Mazer, MDAA president, announced today.

Mr. Adams will work with existing local MDAA chapters and will organize new units in both states. He will also seek to increase local activity to implement the patient-service programs whereby victims in the two states may receive medical aid as well as orthopedic equipment. At the present time, there are some 200 MDAA chapters in the country.

Muscular dystrophy is a disease afflicting more than 200,000 Americans, most of them children. Last year, America's fire fighters collected more than $3,800,000 so that further grants-in-aid can be made to more scientific institutions in the effort to find the cause and cure of this crippling disease. In that Thanksgiving campaign, Texas raised about $66,763.59. The Oklahoma contribution was $9,106.

Formerly a partner in public relations firms in Dallas and Austin, Mr. Adams has also specialized in community welfare work.

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

Speeding Recovery

The dramatic advances of recent years in medicine have not only saved many lives but have greatly shortened the duration of acute illness. Their effect on convalescence, however, has not been as great. Antibiotics end pneumonia in days, but weeks may pass before the patient is back at work.

Speed of recovery from illness or injury is related to nutrition. In the stress of illness the body demands extra nutrients. Studies show that recovery is speeded if that demand is met. The National Research Council, foremost nutritional authority in the U.S., has worked out a special vitamin supplement, called a "stress formula," which holds promise of aiding the repair of tissues and speeding recovery.

The vitamins needed most during convalescence are the B group and vitamins C and K, and according to the NRC, about 5 times the normal intake is required under stress.

Since no practicable diet can meet this standard, Chas. Pfizer & Co. has devised a convenient and economical solution to the problem. Two broad-range antibiotics, Terramycin and Tetracyn, have been combined for the first time with the stress formula vitamins into Terramycin-SF and Tetracyn-SF. The antibiotic's purpose is to terminate the illness quickly, while the vitamins will shorten convalescence.

The new development in stress-fortified antibiotics is expected to make it possible for the physician to treat the whole patient as well as the specific disease. To the patient, the prospect of a shorter recovery period holds promise of lightening his economic load, too.

BIGGEST CAR

of the low-price 3 is Plymouth

MORE LUXURY OUTSIDE

You'll be understandably proud of the long, low, flowing lines of your new Plymouth. Its 17 feet of shining steel make it the biggest car of the low-price 3 (8.4 inches longer than one car, 5.3 inches ahead of the other). And its glamorous new Full-View windshield, with swept-back corner posts, gives you wider, safer visibility than either of the "other 2" low-price cars.

MORE COMFORT INSIDE

Plymouth's greater over-all dimensions also mean more interior roominess. You get the widest front seat (by up to 2 inches), the greatest front and rear leg room (by up to 3.7 inches). Plymouth's door openings are higher and wider, too, permitting the easiest possible entry and exit. What's more, Plymouth's new trunk is mammoth—with far greater capacity than the "other 2."

SMOOTHER BIG-CAR RIDE

Only a truly big car like Plymouth can give you the luxury of a big-car ride. Plymouth's longer and stronger frame, wider rear springs and Oriflow shock absorbers provide the smoothest ride in the lowest-price field. And Plymouth's great new 6-cylinder PowerFlow 117 gives you the smoothest, thriftiest performance. Another top engine: Plymouth's new 167-hp Hy-Fire V-8.

LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER PUZZLED OVER POLITICIAN'S FIGHT ON BILL BRINGING ON ONLY DOUBLE TAXATION

Editors note: The Little River Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Marlow has his mind on taxes this week, his letter indicates.

Dear editar:

I'm not much at listening to the radio for news, on account of you have to listen when the announcer is talking, which is regementation, while with anewspaper if you don't feel like reading it now you can put it in your pocket and take a nap and come back to it later on, but the other nite my light bulb burned out and cut me off in the middle of my newspaper so I switched the radio on just to be doing and got to listening to either a Congressman or a State Legislator, I couldn't tell which, talking about proposed tax bill.

I never did find out what bill it was, but what I was interested in was the reason he gave for opposing it.

According to him, the bill would bring on "double taxation," and he said he was opposed to it.

This struck me as odd and I'm still wondering where he came from.

I'm opposed to double taxation all right, but if I could get by with only that little I'd get off the air and keep quiet from now on.

Double taxation? Why, we passed double taxation in this country a hundred years ago and quadruple taxation fifty years ago and quintuple twentyfive years ago and are now working on sixtuple or seventuple or whatever the.

We've got (1) city taxes, (2) school taxes, (3) precinct taxes, (4) county taxes, (5) state taxes, (6) national taxes, and I reckon you could say international taxes, the way we hand money out around the world, and if we keep working on space travel, I reckon we'll have interplanetary taxation.

Some people just don't know when they're well off. Fighting a bill because it'd bring on double taxation is about like being covered up at the bottom of a hay stack and complaining because somebody dropped a toothpick on top of it.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Corporation Income Tax Now Past Due

Information has been received from T. Coleman Andrews, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C., that there may be some misunderstanding with regard to the deadline for filing corporation tax returns. The deadline for this type of return is Mrch 15 and not April 15 as in the case of individual income tax returns.

Because of this misunderstanding, tentative corporation returns filed by March 28, 1955, and accompanied by 50 per cent of tax liability will be considered timely filed, with interest being due on the 50 per cent from March 15 to March 28, 1955.

Brother of Milam Residents Buried In Oklahoma

John Hauk, brother of Jim Hauk, Joe Hauk, Mrs. V. D. Dodd and Mrs. Amos Doskocil, all of the Clarkson community, died in San Francisco California March 11.

He was born at Kolen, Czechoslovakia, Dec. 27, 1903, and came to the United States with his parents at an early age. They lived first at San Angelo, then Vernon and later moved to Bryan County, Okla where they were prominent in the livestock and agriculture industry.

Prior to his death the deceased had been a resident of California for a number of years, except for some eight years, when he resided with his brothers, Willie and Paul, and assisted them on their ranch at Wade, Okla.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday March 22, at 2:30 p. m. in the Wade Community Church.

Cameron Library Membership Drive Last Week In April

Friday night, a group of interested citizens met with the Cameron Public Library Board to help lay the concrete foundation for a Library membership drive. This foundation will be a lasting one because the reinforcement to be used is the finest obtainable....you the citizens of this community. There is none better. As each membership card is sold, a stronger and better Library will be yours and mine.

The Board of Directors of the Library took a map of Cameron and divided it into zones. Representatives from each Civic group present chose a zone and members of these organizations will be knocking on Cameronites doors some time during the last week of April to give them an opportunity to invest and become a stock holder in "one of the most worthwhile missions this City has ever undertafrom a small beginning. The library is no exception. It had its start in the Junior Chamber of Commerce and is now in operation ken," the board announced.

All good things usually spring and has been for sometime. Future plans call for a bigger and better selection of books, a more desirable location and paid librarian. All these things take time and money but with the support of all service clubs and organizations and the backing of every citizen of Cameron, the goal can be reached. Those interested in seeing a good Cameron Library make plans now to support the library drive Citizens have been asked to have their dollar ready for a membership card when they are called upon and invest in the future of Cameron

Pfc. Franklin Glaser Receives Discharge

Pfc. Franklin Glaser received his separation from the Army the latter part of last week after completing two years of military service, and is visiting relatives and friends here in Cameron.

He received his discharge at Camp Chaffee, Arkansas, where one of the two Army separation centers for this area is located.

Pfc. Glaser entered the Army in March, 1953. He received his basic training at Fort Bliss, Texas, and was stationed at Camp Stewart Georgia. For the last eleven months of his service however, he was on a tour of duty overseas in Germany. He was stationed for most of that time in Brennerhaven, the seaport city through which most of the Army's troops and material passes, and was assigned to a MP unit.

He was returned by Army transport to Camp Kilmer, New Jersey and from there was flown to Camp Chaffee, Arkansas, for discharge.

Crop Report Given By J. D. Moore

Tender garden plants and commercial canteloupes were killed by the freeze. Canteloupes are being replanted this week. Most of the commercial tomatoes were set. They received only about 25 percent damage. This occured where they were set in low ground. We think the field corn and Maize will survive the cold. Also the peaches and plums which had set fruit seems to be alright. It has to stay cold longer to kill fruit after it has set than when it is in the bloom stage, J. D. Moore, Milam County Agent reported.

Our brightest picture is our favorable soil moisture. "We received around 3 inches of rain during the last week," Moore stated. He added that this will be very favorable to any replanting which is necessary. The moisture should materially aid the rank growth our oats have made.

A few eager beavers had some cotton up. This will likely have to be replanted. Cutworm damage seems to lead the insect activity.

There is some indications that some of our stockmen will make silage from the oats and sweet clovers. According to A & M College recommendations it will not be necessary to add preservatives to the silage where oats and sweet clover are siloed. These crops should be cut for silage when the oats are in the early dough stage. This practice would not only serve as good insurance against a feed shortage but would eliminate a storage problem for oats.

Loss of Texas Gas Objected To By Lone Star Gas

Lone Star Gas Company's 700,000 customers in Texas and Oklahoma are threatened with sharply increased costs of gas service by the announced plan of Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America to take large quantities of gas from Jack and Wise Counties, Texas, to Chicago, Illinois, D. A. Hulcy, Lone Star Gas Company President, said today.

"Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America proposes to purchase this gas in the fields of Jack and Wise Counties at a comparable price more than 50 per cent higher than the average now being paid in those counties," Mr. Hulcy said. "Should Natural Gas Pipeline institute such high prices it would mean that Lone Star, in order to continue to insure a supply of gas adequate for the future needs of its more than 700,000 customers in Texas and Oklahoma, would have to meet this price not only in Jack and Wise Counties, but, ultimately, all over its system.

"This would serve to increase Lone Star's annual expenditure for gas purchased in Texas and Oklahoma by more than $10 million, and this increase, as a part of the necessary cost of service, would have to be paid by our industrial, commercial and residential customers."

"Historically, Lone Star has always met its obligation to protect its customers against any unwarranted rise in the cost of gas service. Our customers and regulatory authorities, as well, have the right to expect this to be done. We are, therefore, opposing Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America's proposal with every facility at our command.

"The Federal Power Commission has granted our petition for leave to intervene (in opposition) in the hearing before the Commission on Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America's application to construct and operate a 350-mile pipeline extending from Wise County, Texas, through Oklahoma to the Texas Panhandle to deliver gas to Natural Gas Pipeline Company's pipe line system serving the people of Chicago.

"Lone Star is not alone in opposition to this threatening proposal. Other gas service companies operating in this part of the country have taken positive steps in opposition.

"It may be," Mr. Hulcy further stated, "that some producers will criticize Lone Star for taking this action of opposition to Natural Gas Pipeline Company's proposal. In this case, and in all cases, Lone Star must and does consider the long range best interest of its customers and of its producers, as well. Both groups are essential to the business of offering a complete gas service from the producer to the consumer. Any producer who criticizes our action in this case is placing himself in the position of supporting a large increase in the cost of gas service to our 700,000 customers which they unquestionably would think unwarranted.

Jehovah's Witness Program Slated Here April 3

A spokesman for Jehovahs Witnesses announced plans today for delivering a special message to the world. Fred Starnes, local congregation servant revealed some of the details of this special campaign, which includes sponsoring the public lecture entitled 'Christendom or Christianity — Which One Is "the Light of the World"?' All congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses throughout the world will deliver this discourse locally, to which the public is cordially invited. It will be delivered at the Kingdom Hall in Cameron Sunday April 3, at 3 o'clock p. m.

After the discourse a new 32 page booklet containing extra-ordinary information will be given free to each person in attendance. Jehovah's Witness will then begin distribution of millions of copies of this special message in many languages throughout the world. It is their desire to place a copy in every home. Mr. Starnes said the contents of this specially prepared booklet had not yet been made public, but its message was unique and would be of special interest to all people.

Advanced preparation and the worldwide scope of this special campaign give indication that this may well be one of the greatest religious proclamations in modern history, Mr. Starnes said. He went on to tell of local plans that had been made, stating that Jehovah's Witnesses here are ready and eagerly look forward to this special campaign.

Milam 1st, 2nd Graders To Get Vaccine If Test Successful

ANN ARBOR, Mich., — The long-awaited report on the effectiveness of the Salk anti-polio vaccine will be made public three weeks from Tuesday.

The April 12 release date of the historic report was announced in a joint statement by Basil O'Connor, head of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, and Dr. Thomas Francis Jr., director of the University of Michigan Polio Vaccine Evaluation Center.

O'Connor and Francis said millions of school children across the country would be offered the vaccine free of charge if it is proven effective in combatting paralytic polio.

"Children in the first and second grades of public, private and parochial schools in the United States plus those who participated in last summer's Salk experiment and did not get the real serum, will be offered the vaccine as soon as it is available," the statement said.

A total of 1.8 million children in 217 "test ares" throughout the country participated in last summer's mass inoculations, hailed as the biggest medical experiment of all time.

Of the total, 650,000 children were inoculated — 440,000 of them with the real vaccine developed by Dr Jonas Salk of the University of Pittsburgh and the other 210,000 with a harmless control substance The other children participating were just members of the overall study group.

The 210,000 children who received the "Placebo" instead of the real vaccine will have priority for future inoculations if the vaccine is declared effective, according to the O'Connor-Francis statement.

Time To File Income Tax, Immediately

"Taxpayers who have not yet filed their income tax returns for 1954 or paid their installments of estimated tax due should take immediate steps to do so", Mr. Schultz of the local Internal Revenue office said today. "Forms and pamphlets of instructions have been received by most taxpayers who filed returns and paid taxes on 1953. If the taxpayer failed to receive his forms, he should request them in time to file before the close of the final date."

The instructions on the income tax forms and in the pamphlet accompanying them, if carefully followed, will make the preparation of the 1954 return comparatively simple. Mr. Schultz urges taxpayer to make every effort to fill out their own returns, since the Internal Revenue offices in this District are now taxes to capacity of their personnel and equipment in the processing of forms already received from taxpayers who heeded earlier pleas to file their returns and pay the taxas early as possible.

Most information that a taxpayer may require to complete his return may be obtained by a telephone call to the local office. Most of the Internal Revenue offices now have long waiting lines and quick action in any case cannot be assured in the event of personal visits to those offices.

Withholding statements, (Forms W2) and records of any additional income from which tax was not withheld must be attached to the returns of employed taxpayers. Selfemployed individuals who had at least $400 net earnings from self employment must also file returns. Any person who is in doubt as to his obligation for the filing of returns or the payment of Federal taxes may contact the local office of the Director of Internal Revenue for information.

Returns should be carefully rechecked by taxpayers before mailing, to insure accuracy. A check or money order for the full amount of tax due, payable to the Director of Internal Revenue, should accompany the return, which should be forwarded to the Director at Austin, Texas.

Income Taxpayers Are Urged To File Returns Early; Deadline April 15

"While thousands of returns have been received during the first three months of 1955, a considerable number of taxpayers in the Austin District who have not yet filed returns and paid their 1954 Federal income tax should attend to the matter at once," Mr. Schultz of the local Internal Revenue warned today. "April 15 is the deadline, and the cooperation of taxpayers in filing their returns immediately is urgently requested because of our limited personnel and processing equipment," Mr. Schultz stated.

"For most taxpayers Form 1040-A or Short Form 1040 are sufficient, and the average taxpayer using these forms will not find the preparation of his own return too difficult, since the instructions on the forms themselves and the accompanying pamphlet of instructions mailed to taxpayers early in January of this year contain complete step-by-step information. I urge all taxpayers to make every effort to prepare their own returns unless they have problems of a highly complex nature, in which case they would find it a wise course and a sound investment to consult a qualified tax specialist."

Information concerning problems not too complicated may still be obtained by a telephone call to the local Internal Revenue Service office in Cameron, Texas at City Hall, or by making a personal visit to that office. Mr. Schultz warned, however, that day-long lines have prevailed at revenue offices for many days past and that prospective vistors may be required to wait indefinitely.

Checks or money orders in payment of taxes still due should be made payable to the Director of Internal Revenue, Austin, Texas.

Refunds to which some taxpayers may find themselves entitled to receive from the Government should be indicated on Line 14, Page 1, Form 1040. The amount of the refund if placed on the wrong line may result in undue delay in ceiving your refund check.
